Greetings Companions:

The month of December went fast. There was a lot of Christmas programs here at Masonic Pathways. We had concert bands, dancers, afternoon parties with way too much food. One of our residents told me she was tired of Christmas. I think she meant to say was that we didn't get a chance to recover before another group came to entertain us. I had a few holes to fill this month but everyone did a nice job. That makes my job easier. Thank you for getting your articles in on time. Safe travels and I will catch you all next February!

Fraternally,

Jane Todd, Editor of the Triple Tau

The Michigan Jobs Daughters missed P.G.M. Robert Conley at home. The girls and their "chaperones" took the usual picture on his front porch. This is one of many traditions the girls do every year. W.B. Bob was probably as busy as the rest of us and was out-of-town.

Upcoming All Degree Days:

Flint will be hosting an All Degree Day on February 3, 2018 at the Flint Masonic Temple and Schoolcraft will be hosting one on March 3, 2018. Any Council that has a Brother desiring obtaining "further light in Masonry" by joining the Council, here's yours and/or their opportunity. Please contact Ron Siegwald for Flint or Richard Stange for Schoolcraft. Additionally, if you are interested in performing a part, there will be a sign-up sheet on our website: www.rsm-mi.org. Hope to see you there.

Lady Connie

Happy Holidays,

I hope all have enjoyed their Holidays so far and have had an opportunity to spend time with their families.

As we enter a new year and approach the time where we will elect and install new Officers. I would ask all companions to begin to think of who would best serve their Chapter as new or continued leaders and mentors.

If you did not make a New Year's resolution yet, perhaps consider making retention and recruitment one of them. The Grand Chapter Membership and Education Committees have many ideas that can be used and adopted for your individual Chapter needs. For example, there is the 3x3 program. The idea behind this program is that you invite three companions who have not attended in some time, to return for three consecutive meetings. This allows them to see the many positive changes that your Chapter has made and the importance of fellowship. When your Chapter has done this, contact the Grand Chapter Secretary for a surprise award. Another program that your Chapter may be interested in is the Enhance the Secret program. This is a program that is short and can be adopted to your specific needs and can be introduced to potential prospects. It can also be done by one or two companions. For more information on these or other programs, contact the Education and Membership Committee Chairman, REC Mike Roberts, Grand King.

Traverse City Chapter #102 will be holding an all Capitular Degree day and an all Order Day on May 12th, 2018 and they are still looking for help with the Most Excellent Master and Past Master Degrees. If you can and are willing to help, please contact Sir Knight Loren Winn, grktmi@yahoo.com, as soon as possible. Remember that we all need a helping hand now and then, so please, as Masons do and should do, reach out to help.

Also, as this year's Annual Reports will be coming due, please, make sure your Chapter has submitted last year's report. These reports are used for many purposes. One of the most important purposes is to have accurate contact information of each Chapter's leadership, and nights and times of meetings to enable other Chapters or companions to visit. If you know you have not submitted last year's report or you need help with it. Please contact the Grand Secretary immediately.

Please feel free to reach out to me at any time with your ideas, complaints or suggestions;
richhitch62@gmail.com or leave a message at 734-612-4809.

Secretary's Scribbles

Happy New Year! The new year has not come as I write this article, but will have passed by the time you receive it. So once again HAPPY NEW YEAR. 2017 has passed and I am taking an hour or two to reflect on the year. Did we do anything right or wrong last year, what should we look at changing in the future, what can we do to help chapters, what can and should we do, to encourage growth in the fraternity. We must remember that we cannot grow if the Lodges do not grow. Robert Allen Zimmerman (Bob Dylan) said it best in the sixty's "The Times They are a Changing" and we have allowed half a century to pass without changing with the times, or needs of our members. What should we look like in the future, and how should we go about making the changes that need to be made, without being totally disruptive to the fraternity. These are not easy questions to answer, but we need to ask and answer them to survive.

January the start of a new year and a clean slate. There are some things coming that you should be aware of, first would be DeMolay Winterfest being held January 12 - 14, 2018 • Holiday Inn Gateway Center • 5353 Gateway Centre Drive, Flint, MI 48507. This is a fun event for all our youth groups and you get to have fun to play games and interacting with them. The local chapters have activities that have not been passed on to me so check with them.

February brings more activities February 3rd Washington Chapter will host a seven-degree day in the Flint Temple. The next event will be the Annual George Washington Celebration held in Caro, Michigan there is a flyer on the website. This is also Grand Chapters midyear meeting, it is mandatory for Grand Officers and DDI's, but is open to all chapter members. Contact me for more information.

March starts with another seven-degree day to be held in Paw Paw on March 3rd, more information will be on the website as it comes in. East Central will be held in Fort Wayne, Indiana the second weekend of March. Information is on the website on this event also.

I will only go out to the end of the first quarter in this article, there are other events planned further out, but I don't wish to overload your calendars now. I do hope that everyone had a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year. I made my New Year resolution that I have kept every year ever since. That was to not make New Year's resolutions. So far it has worked for me. I am looking forward to the coming year and what it may bring.

May there always be work for your hands to do
 May your purse always hold a coin or two;
 May the sun always shine on your windowpane;
 May a rainbow be certain to follow each rain;
 May the hand of a friend always be near you;
 May God fill your heart with gladness to cheer you.

Happy New Year,

The following membership information is being provided by the Membership Committee to assist in Membership Education and Retention and should be presented at your next regular stated meeting. Thank you for all you do for the Craft.

Before the Past Master Degree

Brother, in keeping with an Ancient Landmark, you are now about to be invested with the secrets of the Degree of Past Master. This degree was originally an honorary degree conferred upon the Master of a Lodge at his installation. It has no historic or direct connection with the preceding degree or the degree that follows. The ritual is not especially significant in the advancement of an initiate in Royal Arch Masonry, but it is regarded as necessary.

The lessons taught in the degree represent the characteristics of our Grand Master Hiram Abiff, reverence for Deity, harmony with the law, diligence in service to our Brethren, and fidelity to every trust, thereby building a spiritual temple, a dwelling place worthy of God. You will be asked several questions to remind you that you are engaged in seeking more light in your search for truth.

The allegory of the Past Master Degree is a dramatic representation of the ideals expressed in the ritual of the degree. It is founded on traditions relating to the installation of successors of King Solomon as Worshipful Master and illustrative of their proper investiture. A ceremony of investiture is given for those who have not served as Master of a Symbolic Lodge.

Brother Levi will represent you in this allegory. King Solomon selected him because of his character as a craftsman and his well-known fidelity. Watch closely as he progresses through the gates. His progress is symbolic of a Master's progress through his Masonic Life.

You will witness a conversation revolving around Hiram, King of Tyre, Levi, and King Solomon regarding life and death and the secret of a Master Mason. There will be reference to the ideals of death to life, ignorance to knowledge, or dark to light. Finally, you will witness King Solomon in his final days.

*Listen closely to the lessons of this degree and we will talk more about them after this Lodge of Past Masters has been closed

Fraternally,
R.E.C. Mike Roberts, Grand King

Companions all:

Here is a little something for January..... Hope you have a great Christmas and the best of the New Year.

This year is a special time
To give, to serve, to love,
It isn't just about yourself
But others you are thinking of.

The months, the days, the time and lights
Are there but have no part,
Of what the meaning of fellowship is,
It's the ringing of the heart.

The craft is at a busy time,
And hopefully all is good
In that we're all thinking,
Of others as we should.

So, let's not try to think about ourselves
But think of things to do,
And help others in a mentoring way,
You'll find your learning too!!

** What we do for ourselves dies with us.
What we do for others and the world, remains forever!

Companions all:

If I were to ask you "What are the 3 most important parts in the Royal Arch Degree?" what would you say? Most would probably say the High Priest, Principal Sojourner, and Captain of the Host. True, these are probably the longest parts in the degree, but I would suggest that it is the three Veils Men.

They are the ones who are with the candidates and can see how they are doing. Are they able to go under the Living Arch? Are they having trouble with the "rough roads" and should just be walking along side? Are they having trouble with the extended walking? These are things the Veils Men should be aware of during the degree. There is nothing that says that these candidates cannot just sit on the sidelines and witness the degree. The most important thing always be aware of our candidates.

Fraternally,

R.E.C. Brent Helm, Grand Master 2nd Veil

Who is Hiram Abiff?

If the strong leaders across the country were to stand on platforms on any given morning and ask the members present, "Who was killed, buried and raised from the grave?" much of members would immediately respond with the name Jesus. A few might also remember the name Lazarus, whom Jesus raised from the dead. Yet, they would remember that Lazarus simply died; he was not killed. In a significant number institutions, the name Hiram Abiff, the son of a widow of the tribe of Naphtali, would come into the consciousness of some of the male members. In some, the question would cause even the leader to think of Hiram. Although these men know that the name Hiram Abiff would be considered a valid answer to the question by other men with whom they privately associate in Masonic Lodges, they would be reluctant to mention the name of Hiram. Certainly, they would not explain the Masonic teaching they have embraced concerning the death, burial and resurrection of Hiram.

Hiram Abiff and the Scriptures

The name Hiram Abiff is not found in Scripture. Yet, the Masonic account of Hiram is often said to be based upon the Holy Bible. In the Master Mason degree, in that portion of the ritual known as the Legend of the Third Degree, there are three central characters. The story line is set around the building of Solomon's temple. The characters, King Solomon, Hiram - the King of Tyre and Hiram Abiff are all taken from the Scriptural account of the temple building. King Solomon and Hiram King of Tyre are mentioned many times in the Scriptures, such as in 1 Kings 5. About the closest the Scriptures come to Hiram Abiff is Hiram-Abi which is found in 2 Chronicles 2:13 in the NAS and NIV translations. Hiram is a variant of Hiram. In the KJV translation of the verse, the name Hiram is found. The KJV uses both Hiram (2 Chron., 2:3) and Hiram (1 Kings 5) to identify Hiram the King of Tyre. The KJV translation of 2 Chron. 2:13 does not contain -Abi, but rather "Hiram my father's." The Hebrew word from which the KJV "fathers" was translated is "'ab," per the Hebrew Dictionary found in Strong's Concordance. Strong's entry for the word 'ab (H1) indicates that it can also mean father-less, as the son of a widow would be. The entry for H1 also mentions "Abi-." Studying various translations along with a Hebrew dictionary allows one to see how Freemasonry may have settled on the name Hiram Abi-ff, also sometimes spelled Abif.

Hiram King of Tyre wrote a letter to King Solomon, advising him that he was sending Hiram-Abi to work on the temple. That letter is documented in 2 Chron. 2:11-14. The fact that Hiram-Abi was the son of a widow of the tribe of Naphtali is confirmed in Scripture. King Solomon sent to Tyre and brought Hiram, whose mother was a widow from the tribe of Naphtali and whose father was a man of Tyre and a craftsman in bronze. Hiram was highly skilled and experienced in all kinds of bronze work. He came to King Solomon and did all the work assigned to him.

Although the most important element of Masonic symbolism deals with the death, burial and resurrection of Hiram Abiff, there is nothing in Scripture to support it. Masonic Grand Lodges have stated that the account is not based upon fact, but rather is an allegory, used to teach. This allegory is familiar to all who have reached the sublime degree of a master mason. This portion has been taken from the Ephesians 5:11 and is intended to inform the membership who and what Hiram Abiff was and his association with masonry. Whether he was real is unknown.

Happy New Year! Oh, sorry.....for those of you who rang in the New Year a little too festively.... Happy New Year!

Aw, that wonderful time of year when college football reigns supreme and we all take a moment to symbolically hit that proverbial reset button; when all is possible once again. To all of you who have made a New Year's Resolution, good luck! May God be ever by your side. May he guide your footsteps and carry you to success.

As we slowly transition away from the holiday season and begin to get back to our normal routines, my hope is that each of you had the opportunity to enjoy time with family and friends or reminisce of a time gone by.

If I may share a little story.....For many years, I was an elementary school teacher. I started out in music and traveled from room to room every thirty minutes for three schools. In 1993, I transferred to a third-grade position and finally had a room of my own. Now, Christmas has always been a special time for me, for a variety of reasons, but especially when I was privileged enough to relive it through the eyes of a child.

My first Christmas with my own classroom required my decorating the room for the season. Now, what to use? I had a flashback to when I was a child and remembered a certain tree my grandmother would put up. Let's see, where was it? It took a while, but I could locate and dig it out from storage in the basement. I dusted it off; $8.88 5' 8" Lifetime Sparkling Aluminum Tree Lord's Outfitters 301 S. Front Street Marquette, Michigan. I brought it to work. As I took each branch out of the paper tube, my mind began thinking back to some special memories that I had not thought of for years. When I finished putting each branch in its own special holder, I put the old red felt bulbs on, just like my grandmother once did. I then put the magical wheel close to the base and angled it upward to light each silver shimmer dangling from each branch. I plugged it in, turned off the classroom lights and turned the switch.... blue, green, yellow, red....my childhood came flooding back. What a great time with a dear, dear woman. I miss you Grandma! When the children came to school, I made sure the lights were off in the classroom so they could capture the beauty of that special tree. Every day I had to turn off the lights of the classroom for them to sit and watch.... blue, green, yellow, red. Teachers from other classrooms would bring their children to my room to watch and enjoy. I was trying to make Christmas special for them, and they made Christmas special for me. I am no longer a teacher as I have since retired, but that tree and memories are tucked away in a safe place.

As you move back to your regular routines and get caught up in your busy day to day activities, don't forget to take time to make lasting memories with those around you that mean the most. This time of year, provides us with a moment to do just that. Make a New Year's Resolution to do this every day. It will then be a resolution worth keeping!

Until next time, safe travels to wherever the journey takes you!

Gary L. Paquet,

Most Illustrious Grand Master of the Grand Council R. & S. Masons of Michigan

Dear Sir Knights and Ladies:

As we ring in another New Year we can finally sit back and take a break from the hustle and bustle of the Christmas Season. We weren't sure if we could get everything done with all the activities last month. With all the Lodge and Council Installations, Honor Guards, Christmas Parties both Masonic and Private, Commandery Inspections and of course our Christmas Observances.

One special Observance was when the Grand Commandery visited the Masonic Pathways to Celebrate Christmas. Eleven Sir Knights and their Ladies were in attendance passing out cookies to the residents afterward. I want to send a very special Thank You to our Grand Generalissimo Darrel Winslow who made Christmas cards, with the pictures of the Grand Officers and their Ladies that were passed with the goodies. Afterwards, we had a chance to visit with those who attended and some in their rooms or under nursing care. We also had a chance to see the Editor of the Triple Tau, Jane Todd and thank her for all her hard work. I can't forget Sir Knight Duane Todd for being our guide through the home. The Masonic Pathways is a true gem that we all can be proud of. We were saddened by the loss of Past Grand Commander Russell P. Livermore who served as Grand Commander in 1991. He went on to serve the Grand Encampment as East Central Department Commander from 1994-1997. We send our deepest condolences to Lady Mary Louise and family on their loss. Those who virtue unites, death can never separate.

Although we serve the Masonic Fraternity without expectations of fee or reward, it is always nice to be in the position to reward those who serve unselfishly. As Grand Commander, there are several awards that I can award or recommend to Grand Encampment to be awarded. Only about a third of Commanderies have submitted a Knight for the Grand Commanders Service Award. It is disappointing that every Commandery has not submitted a deserving Knight for this honor.

We have five openings for the Meritorious Service Award and now I have not received any written nomination request. I have had one discussion with a Commandery and hope they and other Commanderies will send me their request.

Another award is to one deserving Knight in the state to receive the Knight Templar Cross of Honor. There are many Knights who are deserving of either award, so please make my decision as hard as possible in choosing who will receive these prestigious awards.

I will be sending the list of Sir Knights for the Emerging Leadership Training Program to be held in Fort Wayne, Indiana on March 10th. Make sure I have your address, phone number, and email address so Grand Encampment can send your invitation. I guess this is all for this month so Lady Jeanne and I wish you all a Happy New Year!

In Unity,
 S.K. Michael Whiting, Right Eminent Grand Commander of Michigan

DeMolay

Christmas is over and I hope that everyone had a wonderful holiday season. Michigan DeMolay also had its last Degrees of the year. On December 30, 2017, Michigan DeMolay held both degrees at the Clio Masonic Temple. We initiated several new members and even some older ones into the order. The honorary DeMolay initiates were just as impressed as the young men.

Now all attention is turning to Winterfest. Winterfest will be held in Flint at the Holiday Inn Gateway Center on January 12-14, 2018. This year's theme is "Star Wars" and will include costumes, Jedi training with fun and games. This is the big fun event for the DeMolay year and we look forward to having a big turn out from all the Masonic Orders. The companions would enjoy Winterfest as all the youth groups have a great time. Maybe, you could team up with a youth for a game or even volunteer for the charity pie toss.

Michigan DeMolay is on the move with membership as several Chapters have almost doubled their membership. Remember if you have a son, nephew, grandson or know of a young man between the ages of 12-21 ask any of the State Officers or any Advisor for a petition. We will get in contact with the young man and his family as soon as possible to answer their questions about DeMolay. Please try to attend any of the upcoming events and show these remarkable young men that the Masonic Family is willing to support them. If there is anything that Michigan DeMolay can do to help support any of the works of the Companions, please let a State Officer know or contact the Executive Officer.

Fraternally,
Vince D'Aguzzo, Exec. Officer of MI DeMolay

INTERNATIONAL ORDER OF RAINBOW FOR GIRLS

Merry Christmas. I realize it is after Christmas and I wanted to share with you the delightful day that Michigan Rainbow celebrated Christmas. On December 10, our Eastern Star Grand Family counterparts and Rainbow had a joint Christmas party in Howell. 140 folks got together, played games, exchanged Christmas presents, ate lots of good food and met Santa. Santa this year was a Jedi knight with a Santa hat. He welcomed people and taught Grand Worthy Advisor, Mckenzie, how to fight with lightsabers. Everyone had a great time and it was a great start to the Christmas season.

Just one week later, Michigan Rainbow joined with Joshua Woodwyk, MWGM, and his wife, Danielle, for a movie event. A whole group of people had a private showing of "Star Wars: The Last Jedi". This was a great event for Michigan Rainbow since Star Wars is our theme this year.

Now we take a little break to enjoy family and friends as we all celebrate Christmas. We hope each of you had a wonderful holiday and a great start to 2018. Our next event for some of us is joining Michigan DeMolay at Winterfest.

Please stay dry and warm, and be careful in the snow.

Until next month,
Fraternally,
Maureen Riley, Supreme Inspector

MICHIGAN JOB'S DAUGHTERS INTERNATIONAL

Well, here we are! Coming into 2018 and another holiday season in the books. Michigan Job's Daughters was very busy giving back this holiday season.

At the beginning of the month, we headed to Alma for our annual Christmas Party at Masonic Pathways. We began our day with the OES/MI-JDI Counterpart luncheon where we enjoyed a fantastic soup and sandwich meal with our OES Grand Family friends. We played a gift exchange game and enjoyed some fellowship time. After lunch, we headed upstairs to the DOIG Chapel where we entertained the residents of Masonic Pathways with a variety show including Christmas Carols and a sing-along.

The variety show featured was organized by a much-loved Past Grand Guardian, Mom Pam VanDuinen who always puts her whole heart into anything she takes on. With acts, such as singers, dancers, and girls playing Christmas Carols on their instruments, the residents were asking for more when it was over! Our Grand Bethel Honored Queen, Miss Liliy did a beautiful dance solo. There was a daughter who came down from Marquette to share her beautiful voice with us. We had a surprise guest, First Lady Danielle Woodwyk, graced us with a beautiful and touching song. Several of the daughters from around the state did instrumental arrangements of holiday songs and there were a couple of group dances including a jazz composition and a holiday hula. The Grand Bethel performed their own version of the "Scrooge" story. One of our families did a reading of "'Twas the Night Before Christmas" complete with a visit from Santa!

From there, a large group of us went around the corner to the home of a couple of well-known friends...Mom JoNeil and Dad Bob Conley. They weren't home but they never are! It has become a tradition for us to take a "family picture" on the front steps of their home to send to let them know they were missed.

That evening we headed to Mt Pleasant for a roller skating party, pizza, and a sleepover. Many of the adults in our organization even donned their roller skates, and risked their bones, to join the girls in some interactive fun! No bones were broken but I'm sure some PRIDE was damaged!

A couple of weeks later several of the daughters accompanied the Grand Guardian, Mom Cheryl Davis, and Associate Grand Guardian, Dad Franz Langegger to visit the children at the Shrine Center in Southfield to volunteer at the Moslem Shrine Children's Christmas Party. They donned their elf costumes, and played Santa's helper to the children who are Shrine patients in that area, by helping set up, assisting with crafts, serving food, and playing games with the Shrine Children. They would participate in passing out gifts and sharing in the joy of the holiday season.

We took a break over the holidays to catch up on some much-needed rest before we head to DeMolay's "Winterfest Awakens" event the weekend of January 12 - 14, 2018. There we will take on the challenges that they have prepared for us, including Jedi Training, Light Saber Battles, Nerf Wars, and a charity pie toss (we will pay money to throw a pie in the faces of the state leaders of the various Masonic organizations!). Michigan Job's Daughters is prepared to "use the Force" to defend our standing as the Tug-of-War champions and to put our dignity at risk to raise the most charity funds in the pie toss. We are coming for you, Michigan DeMolay!

January is installation season for Michigan Job's Daughters and I would like to issue a personal invitation from my own home Bethel #10 in Grand Rapids. Our installation of officers will be held on Saturday, January 27, 2018, at 6:00 p.m. with refreshments to follow. PLEASE contact your local Bethels to find their installation date. Go visit them, introduce yourselves and let them know that you are there to support them! They would LOVE to have you on their sidelines to witness their hard work!

We hope that everyone had a wonderful holiday season, and send wishes to all for a happy and prosperous New Year!

Respectfully Submitted,
Terri Brower, Vice Grand Guardian
Michigan Job's Daughters
